

Synthetic Opiates and Street Drugs: A Forensic Pathologist's Perspective

Renée Robinson, MD
Forensic Pathologist
rmrobins@neomed.edu

Objectives

- Be familiar with the role of a forensic pathologist
 - Awareness of common drugs of abuse and their effects
 - Case Reviews: Drug abuse and our patients
 - Recap of past, present, future of epidemic
-

Disclosure

- No financial disclosures or conflicts of interest
-

- Presentation slides unavailable

DOCTOR AND PATIENT Resources (Stark County)

- Mental health board of your county
- Project DAWN
- Opiate task force of Stark County
www.starkmhrs.com
- Crisis intervention and recovery center 330-452-6000
- Quest recovery and prevention services 330-453-8252

Resources for drug education

- www.erowid.com
- www.bluelight.org
- www.urbandictionary.com
- www.streetdrugs.org
- <https://www.drugabuse.gov/>

Thank You for Your Attention

- Questions?
- rmrobins@neomed.edu

